As a result of the heroism of these women the movement to organize a front great army of women is going on staffs of the local military districts. The Government has issued arms and mplete equipment to the women and has appointed male commanders and instructors, and in view of the spread of the movement it is planning a more suitable uniform for the women fighters.

In Petrograd a new battalion is being raised by the chairwoman of the new Women's Military League, a university student, Miss Fromenko. The spacious engineer's balance has been turned into a barracks in which 700 girls and women are already in uniform out of the 1,200 so far enrolled. For the remaining places in the battalion there are 1,500 appliuses.
